

Thanksgiving MadLib

Before reading your story fill in the blanks. Then read your story aloud and try not to laugh too much.

Today is _____. We are having dinner _____ holiday today/tonight at _____'s house. I can't wait to eat the _____ person adjective turkey and the _____ stuffing! We always adjective
_____ around the table to eat and talk about what verb we are thankful for. I am most thankful for my _____ noun and of course my _____ family! After we finish eating
adjective
_____ and _____ usually _____ person person verb around and clean up all the dishes. Then we all _____ verb
down and watch the _____ game. Usually everyone sport falls asleep before halftime because their _____ is filled body part with _____ turkey! After everyone rests we get out
adjective
_____ and all play together. _____ usually wins board game Person and _____ is always a _____ loser. But as soon person adjective
as _____ gets out the dessert everyone seems to forget person about the games and are ready to get some _____ in their dessert
_____. We usually _____ around and talk for a body part verb while before we have to go home. We all leave in a _____
adjective
mood and are excited to get together again at _____.
holiday